LEAD YOUTH WORKER

The Fountain of Life is a charismatic, evangelical, network church in the Church of England, and the subject of a newly published book called "Redigging the Wells". It is located in mid Norfolk, has mission at its heart and seeks to take the gospel into the centre of the communities in which works. It is a resource church to the Diocese of Norwich and part of the New Wine network.

Fountain of Life Network Church, Ashill

Are you passionate about seeing young people becoming lifelong disciples of Christ? Do you have experience of leading a team of volunteers and organising church-based activities and events for young people? Do you have a vision for developing youth work in a popular rural area? Could you gather and grow a team to engage young people in a programme of activities and events in a Spirit filled environment?

We are a church that is prepared to support new initiatives in order to honour the vision you will have sought from God. We believe our staff should be given space to grow into their ministry as it takes shape. Are you an innovator who has a vision for youth work in a popular rural context?

YOU WILL NEED TO BE:

- A committed Christian with a desire to engage with young people from year 6 to 13
- Experienced in leading and pastoring young people
- Experienced in planning and leading a broad range of activities
- A person who can translate vision into action
- A self-motivated, team player who loves to work with people

More information, a job role and application form are available from our office: admin@folchurch.co.uk

Appointment can only be made upon receipt of application forms, 2 references and a DBS check.
