

Youth Worker

in Gorleston-on-Sea, Norfolk

(location of one of Trip Advisor's top 10 beaches!)

Identity Youth Project, a Christian Charity (est. 2012) supported by local churches, is looking for a youth worker to strengthen church youth in the faith and reach out to young people through the local churches, schools and a sixth form college.

You will:

- Be a committed Christian with a mature faith in Jesus
- Be seeking to live under the lordship of Jesus, under the authority of Scripture
- Be hungry to learn and grow, to receive training in Bible teaching and in other supporting areas
- Be ready to love and serve the last, the lost and the least
- Be passionate about discipling and teaching young Christians, supporting them in their local churches
- Have a heart for creatively reaching young people outside of the church
- Be prepared to work across denominations, nurturing fellowship for young people
- Be an enabler of others, building teams of volunteers to reach young people
- Ideally have administrative, management and online skills
- Ideally have a recognised youth work qualification

We will provide:

- Recognition of the priority of youth ministry
- Considerable experience in youth ministry and successful community mission providing an opportunity for ministry training and development
- An established programme of activities to work within and a functioning website
- A passionate team of volunteers, colleagues and trustees to work with across the local churches, with a supportive base at St Mary Magdalene Church Gorleston
- Prayerful and practical support from local churches
- Relevant training, including Bible training with Crosslands in Norwich
- Possible opportunities to serve and develop in other areas of church and community/school life, depending on interest, ability and gifting
- A permanent contract
- Salary range: £21k-24k pro-rata depending on experience plus pension contribution. Part-time or full-time hours will be considered.
