

Job Description

Governance and Executive Support Officer

Background

The Parish Support Team is made up of the staff and volunteers of a charity called the Norwich Diocesan Board of Finance Ltd (NDBF). The core purpose of the charity is to serve the local parish mission and ministry of Church of England churches, schools and chaplaincies across Norfolk and Waveney, collectively referred to as the Diocese of Norwich.

The Parish Support Team currently operates from Diocesan House in Easton on the outskirts of Norwich, offering a broad range of services across the diocese that support and encourage colleagues working in local parishes. The main areas of work include support for local mission and ministry, finance, GDPR and data, communications, and safeguarding services.

The Executive Secretariat supports the Diocesan Secretary (Chief Executive) and Director of Finance with their responsibilities to ensure good governance and effective leadership of the charity in compliance with ecclesiastical and charity law and good practice.

The post is in support of the Diocesan Secretary (Chief Executive) who is the Secretary to the Diocesan Synod and Secretary of the Bishop's Council, and this role will support those functions in all aspects.

Ethos and Values

The way we work in the Parish Support Team is as important as what we do, and we are committed to:

- Proactively promote and demonstrate our Diocesan Vision, Christian ethos and values in all aspects of work.
- Treat everyone as a valued individual with kindness and respect.
- Promote and demonstrate a culture of continuous improvement and development.
- Work collaboratively with all colleagues in the Parish Support Team.

Purpose of the role

To provide confidential, proactive and efficient support for the Diocesan Secretary (Chief Executive) in the delivery and continuous development of good governance and business support for the Norwich Diocesan Board of Finance (NDBF).

Governance and policy

- Act as the lead officer for governance support.
- Support the practical and administrative requirements of governance meetings, especially in relation to Diocesan Synod and Bishop's Council of Trustees, including assembling agenda packs and taking minutes.
- Oversee the flow of governance activity, monitoring and advising on the consideration of matters to best ensure efficient use of time and effective decision making in pursuit of the organisation's charitable objects.
- Support the development and communications of schedules for future governance meetings.
- Keep accurate and up to date records of governance related information, including signed minutes.
- Update and maintain governance related data to maximise the accuracy of the diocesan database.
- Keep an up-to-date knowledge of governance good practice, particularly in relation to the Charity Commission and Church of England, including the Church Representation Rules.
- In consultation with the Diocesan Secretary, deal with general correspondence concerning the business of the Diocesan Synod and Bishop's Council of Trustees.
- Oversee the co-ordination of governance induction, training and development activity.
- Monitor governance standing orders, delegated authorities and terms of reference, ensuring they continue to meet the needs of the organisation.

Executive support

- Monitor the organisational policy framework and co-ordinate the process for timely review of policies.
- Co-ordinate work to maintain the organisational risk register and support the Director of Finance with reporting to relevant committees.
- Build and maintain good relationships with Governance support leads in other dioceses.
- Provide cover for the 'PA to Diocesan Secretary and Director of Finance' when required for the effective running of the Executive Secretariat.

Board representation and elections

- Act as the lead officer for electoral matters.
- Advise the Bishop's Council of Trustees on elected parochial lay representation on Deanery Synods, and to issue guidance to PCC Secretaries in advance of triennial elections.
- Organise, on behalf of the Diocesan Secretary, the triennial elections from the Diocesan Synod to Bishop's Council and other diocesan boards, councils and committees, and to make arrangements for casual vacancies to be filled.
- Support the Presiding Officer in the conduct of elections to the General Synod and make arrangements for casual vacancies to be filled.
- Establish and communicate accurate lists of voters in advance of elections and by-elections to the Diocesan Synod and General Synod.
- Circulate information and guidance on statutory requirements to relevant stakeholders such as the conduct of the annual parochial church meeting and election of churchwardens.
- Undertake such other reasonable duties as may be required from time to time as are consistent with the responsibilities of the grade
